NEARING COMPLETION.

Progress of Construction on the C. P. R. in the Mountains.

2720 Miles of Rails Laid—The Grades—Interview with the General Manager.

A representative of the Gazette called upon Mr. W. C. Van Horne, vice-president of the Canadian Pacific railway, who returned from a tour of inspection over the whole road. In answer to questions as to the progress which was being made towards completing the construction of the road, Mr. Van Horne said:

"We are progressing rapidly with the construction of the road, although we will be some six or eight weeks behind the time at which we expected to complete the road, and it will be some time in October before we get all the work done. This delay will be largely occasioned by the fact that we could not get men in the earlier part of the season, owing to the excitement in connection with the rebellion. Another cause of delay will be that the rails are arriving at the Pacific coast behind time; they have had very bad weather, and I understand that some of them have been obliged to put into convenient ports for repairs."

"When will the road be open for traffic between Montreal and Winnipeg?"

"The ballasting is progressing rapidly on the north shore of Lake Superior and the whole line between Montreal and Winnipeg will probably be open for traffic in six or eight weeks, and before the close of the season it will be in fine condition. We have now 2,720 miles of rails laid and the grading of the entire road will be completed in a few weeks. On the trip which I have just made over the road, everything seemed to be in a very prosperous state, and now that the rebellion is over there will undoubtedly be a very general brightening up all along the main line. I may also mention that while we were traveling on the Canadian Pacific line on this trip we averaged 640 miles a day, which I think is a pretty good showing."

"What about the reported heavy grades and the avalanches along the line?"

"These reports about the difficulties from heavy grades and avalanches, and things of that kind are all buncom, and have originated in the brains of the people who do not know what they are talking about. They are similar to the other bug bears that have been trumped up in connection with the Canadian Pacific railway which have never been heard of after the road was built. Every dismissed engineer, every contractor who failed to get all he wanted and others who supposed they had grievances against the company, have suddenly discovered these things against the road. The heaviest grade between Montreal and the summit of the Rocky Mountains is between Hochelaga and Mile End, and our heaviest permanent grade in the mountains is only thirty-three feet to the mile heavier than between Hochelaga and Mile End. Why, Sir Henry Tyler, who went as far as the summit of the Selkirks, and saw all the section of the road on which the heavy grades occur, laughed at the difficulties that have been so much talked about, and said that all the talk about heavy grades was simply ridiculous."

THE DOMINION RAILWAY LANDS.

The Regulations and Order-in-Council of Last April Amended.

The Canada Gazette of the 18th inst. contains a proclamation amending the order-in Council of the 20th of April last. The date of the amendment is the 16th inst., and reads:

"That the word 'six' be substituted for the word 'five' in the last line of clause 12 of said regulation." The clause as amended will now read: The provisions of clauses numbered thirteen to twenty-four of these regulations, both inclusive, shall not apply to lands settled upon after the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and EIGHTY-SIX.

Sub-clause 4 of clause 20 has been repealed and sub-clause 5 of the same clause has been amended by striking out the words "Erection of a habitable house."

As this is a very important clause to homesteaders we re-publish it, as well as the sub-sections as amended, in full:

20. At the expiration of three years from the date of his perfecting his homestead entry, the settler, or in case of his death, his legal representatives, upon proving to the satisfaction of the local agent that he, or they, or some of them, have resided upon and cultivated the land during the same term of three years, shall be entitled to a patent for the land, provided such proof is accepted by the commissioner of Dominion lands, or the land board, and on payment of one dollar per acre for the land: Provided also, that the patent therefor shall not issue to any person not then a subject of Her Majesty by birth or naturalization.

(2.) Provided, that in the case of a settler who may have obtained homestead entry for land occupied by him previous to survey thereof, in manner hereinbefore mentioned, residence upon and cultivation of the land for the three years next preceding the application for patent shall, for the purpose of the issue of patent, be held equivalent to that prescribed in the foregoing clause, if such residence and cultivation be otherwise in conformity with the provisions of these regulations;

(3.) Any person proving that he has resided on the land for which he has homestead entry for twelve months from the date of his perfecting his entry therefor, and that he has brought under cultivation at least thirty acres thereof, may, before the expiration of the three years defined in sub-clause two of this clause, obtain a patent by paying two dollars and fifty cents per acre for the land;

(5.) Proof of the residence and cultivation required by this clause, shall be made by the claimant by affidavit and shall be corroborated by the evidence on oath of two disinterested witnesses, resident in the vicinity of the land affected by their evidence, and accepted as sufficient by the Commissioner of Dominion Lands or the Land Board; such affidavit shall be sworn and such testimony given before the Local Agent or some other person named for that purpose by the Minister of the Interior.

In reply to enquiries made both in the Senate and in the Commons, the government stated that active steps are being taken to temporarily relieve families near the scene of the rebellion in the North-west, who have been left in a destitute condition, under the superintendence of Lieut.-Governor Dewdney. Provisions are being supplied to all such persons, as well as other necessities, to relieve their pressing needs.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

A Chilliwhack "Clique" Criticized.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR,—For some time this settlement has been ruled by a "clique" whose motive has evidently been to coerce people living around here to fall in with their line of conduct and thought; but the time is now past that a few individuals can rule, insult and drive people as they like. The J. P.'s, the Postmaster and in fact the whole raft of petty office-holders, are members of the clique. This is clearly shown by their persecution of some of the residents of the valley. The ignorant and partizan judgments rendered by the J. P.'s recently, are a part of their bigoted affrontery. The manner in which the postoffice is kept is another insult to the people of Chilliwhack. It is very annoying, to say the least of it, to see the mail which arrives early Sunday morning, distributed to a few "dear brothers" of the clique, and to ask for your mail, and in the face of the foregoing get refused. If shows to what extent the silly, yet annoying bigots will go. If the law did not provide, in emergency cases, for Sunday distribution of mail, common decency and a desire to accommodate, should at least prompt them to treat all alike. But no, it is very improper to give out letters to any one but a few of the chosen ones. I can cite cases where $40 and $50 has been lost by parties not being able to get their letters in time. I note some of the other papers are taking the matter up, but the Columbian does not publish anything reflecting on Honest John's friends. Yet this "clique" are talking of running one of their thick-headed ones for the Local House, their chief argument in his favor being that he cannot do any harm if he does no good. CHILLIWHACKER.

The "Prayer" Amendment Controversy.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR,—I have been somewhat amused watching the letters anent the "prayer" amendment. That we have people among us who are so far behind the age as Spectator and Teacher would hardly be believed had it not been for their labored productions appearing in print. Where can these Rip Van Winkles have been vegetating that they are only now in the state of mind usually accredited to the 16th century? I thought that there was hardly a corner so obscure that the light of recent centuries had not penetrated! "The world moves," so said Galileo more than two centuries ago, but not so, apparently, with these worthies. The same spirit of persecution that condemned the poor old man for such an heretical innovation as daring to say "The World Moves" in opposition to the united wisdom (?) of the "church," exists to-day in our midst and only lacks the power "to weed out and extirpate" those having different, and such as are generally recognized as more advanced views. Full religious toleration has long been held as the key note to advancement, for the ideas that are not in conformity with known truths will gradually become obsolete. I have the great t regard for the religious feelings of every one, and would not wilfully hurt them, as they are probably the best they have according to their lights. But if the result of teaching the doctrine held by Spectator and Teacher be to make them have such savage and vindictive feelings towards their fellow men, I should say the poor children who are put in their care are to be pitied. Better that they should never hear a word that they did not understand than that they should inherit such feelings. A little of the milk of human kindness to the poor erring mortals who are astray, or a willingness to submit to reason, would be better for all, and more in accordance with the views of the "gentle Nazarene" than the "weed and extirpate" doctrine to which they avow their adhesion and to which the intelligence of the present age objects to return. More anon. "Man's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands mourn."

NEMO ME IMPUNE LACESSIT.

The Chinese in San Francisco.

A San Francisco dispatch of the 22d says the first ruling of the treasury department on the Chinese restriction act has been received from Washington. It embodies correspondence between Secretary Manning and Collector Sears, of this port. The opinion on the subject is delivered by A. McOne, solicitor of the treasury. The important part of the ruling is that covering clause 6 of the act of 1884, which provides for a certificate to be issued by the Chinese government or by the foreign port of which a Chinese person is subject to identify every Chinese person not a laborer entitled under the treaty to come within the United States. The solicitor of the treasury says: "It may be considered that diplomatic and consular officers of China accredited to foreign parts represent there the Chinese government, and their certificate is proper. This decision gives Chinese consuls the right to issue certificates to Chinese returning to China, and such certificates must be recognized as valid by the United States government on the return of those Chinese to this country.

The Northwest correspondent of the St. Paul Pioneer Press, referring to the illness and death of the late Lieut.-Col. Williams, says: "While he was still alive it was touching to note how quiet the soldiers (his own battalion) were upon the boat, and the grief of all upon finding recovery hopeless was as earnest as if he had been the personal friend of each, as, indeed, he was. He was brave to a fault, and, although he grew intensely excited in action, it was the sort of excitement which made his tones the steadier and his step the firmer. To him belong the greenest laurels of the Batoche charge, and now that he has joined the majority they are freely accorded him."

It is announced from London that the Canadian Pacific Railway bonds, the issue of which was recently authorized by Parliament, will be brought out by Messrs. Baring Bros. & Co., and Messrs. Glyn, Mills & Co. Lord Wolverton, head of the house of Glyn, Mills & Co., who is acting as one of the trustees, having examined carefully the condition of the Company's finances and resources, confirms the published statements of Mr. George Stephen. It is understood that the bonds, which bear 5 per cent interest, will be issued at a minimum of 90.

Gabriel Dumont is said to be willing to go to Regina to testify in behalf of Riel, even without the promise of protection. Evidently Gabriel thinks that the government is not going to punish very hard for the recent escapade.

THE WIDE WORLD.

A Salvation Army Demonstration.

LONDON, July 27.—General Booth of the Salvation Army has announced a grand parade of the Army in London tomorrow. The object of the demonstration is to influence Parliament in view of the revelations made by the Pall Mall Gazette to pass the proposed Criminal Act increasing the age of consent in girls from 13 to 18 years. The Army will march to the House of Commons and present to that body a petition signed by 500,000 people praying for an immediate reform of the English criminal laws relative to the corruption of girls.

Mrs. Booth, wife of the Commander in Chief of the Salvation Army, after the publication of the Pall Mall Gazette's revelations wrote a letter to the Queen asking Her Majesty's endorsement of the work which the army has undertaken of suppressing the patrician crimes against the children of the poor. The Queen on Thursday last sent Mrs. Booth a personal letter conveying Her Majesty's strongest sympathy with the reform work.

Rev. Spurgeon addressed a gathering of 4000 persons at Benmore yesterday. In the course of his remarks he referred to the recent revelations of iniquities in London and denounced the traffic in young girls.

THE CLOSE SEASON

A Trader in Court for Having Green Deer Skins in his Possession.

John Green appeared in police court this morning for having in unlawful possession a quantity of deer skins. Officer Stewart deposed to having seen the defendant and two other men unloading a quantity of deer skins from the schooner Oreole, and on inspection found that the deer had been killed during the close season. They consisted of about two hundred pelts, done up in five bales. They had been examined by Dr. Jackson, Mr. Braden, Mr. Moreley and others, and pronounced summer skins.

Dr. Jackson: Examined a quantity of deer skins on the H. B. Company's wharf this morning; some of them were taken from deers killed within a month, and some longer; the close season begins on the 16th January and the skins have been taken since that date.

(An adjournment was here taken for a few minutes when the bales were opened and re-examined and counted.) The number of skins were found to be 207, of which 203 were green or killed during the close season.

Mr. J. Braden, who examined the skins, gave similar evidence. He had done a great deal of hunting during the past twelve years and felt confident that his opinion in respect to the time the deer were killed was correct.

Mr. Green made a statement. He said that he had attended a potlach at Cape Mudge, with a quantity of biscuits and flour, which he traded off for skins; did not know that there was any law prohibiting the purchase of skins, and could not distinguish a summer from a winter skin, or when the deer had been killed. The Indians were eating deer meat every day he was there.

Taking into consideration, and believing Mr. Green's statement, the magistrate said he would impose the smallest penalty the law allowed, and ordered that the 203 skins be confiscated and that defendant pay a fine of $10 and $2 costs, or in default fourteen days imprisonment.

The City Sidewalks.

A correspondent, who says that he is a new comer to the city, writes to THE TIMES complaining of the condition of the sidewalks in many places in the city. He says that he has traveled recently through many cities in the United States and Eastern Canada of about the same and smaller population of Victoria, and in none of them did he see the plank walks in such a dilapidated condition. While it must be admitted that on several streets, where the walks were laid some years ago, they have become badly the worse for wear, and present a very uneven surface of projecting knots, loose nails, and a generally disorganized condition, nevertheless it should not be forgotten that the council has not been altogether remiss in its duty in this respect. In proportion to population the area of the city is very large, and consequently the number of sidewalks to build and keep in repair is very large, taxing the city finances yearly to considerable amount.

An Old Coast Pioneer.

The oldest pioneer, and the earliest white resident of the Pacific coast now living, is James Peall, a fisherman 87 years of age, who does business at Redwood City, California. He deserted the ship Herod at San Francisco bay in 1818, and made his way to the Mission Dolores where the Fathers gave him a horse and directed him to a white settler in San Mateo county, named Smith. Peall has lived in San Mateo country ever since, except during a short absence to San Blas, where he was taken in 1840 to be tried for conspiracy against the Mexican government, but was acquitted. Dr. Tolmie, of Victoria, and a few other old Hudson Bay employees, date their coming to the coast as far back as fifty years.

The Kootenay Syndicate.

The Kootenay Syndicate, Limited, is registered in London, Eng., with a capital of £10,000 in shares of £1. The company proposes to acquire land in British Columbia, or elsewhere in Canada or the United States, to redeem and irrigate the same, to erect saw and flour mills, and engage in lumbering, and to undertake by steamers, boats, rafts, canoes, etc., the navigation of the Kootenay river and lakes, and of the Upper Columbia river. The subscribers all live in London. Mr. W. Bailie Grohman is managing director.

The Theatre Comique.

The attendance at the Theatre Comique last night was not quite as large as usual, in consequence of the superior attractions at Philharmonic Hall. The programme was a lengthy and varied one, and portions of it were loudly encored. Prof. Young Dutchey again exhibited his marvelous feats of strength, lifting three heavy anvils at one time, one by the teeth, and one in each hand. The soft glove contest between Dutchey and Stewart was specially interesting to the sports and displayed considerable science, particularly on the part of the former. The programme will be repeated with some variations, to-night. It is the intention of the management, at an early day, to visit New Westminster and Nanaimo for a brief season.

Evangelistic.

Rev. A. P. Graves, Evangelist, will preach in the Y. M. C. A. rooms to-night at 7.30 o'clock and to-morrow night in Temperance Hall, same hour.

THE British admiralty is preparing plans for the defense and protection of commercial ports in the empire. The admiralty has decided to construct several torpedo rams similar to the Polyphemus, owing to the latter's effective service during the recent evolutions in Botany bay.

THE debate on the question of continuing the official report of debates terminated with the result being that the Hansard will be continued with the provision that the staff, of whom there are six English and two French reporters, will be utilized in Government reporting during recess, without extra cost, except traveling expenses. This, together with the smaller edition to be published, will effect a salary of $8,000 a year.

THE industrial development of the Southern States during the past six months is the subject of general remark across the line. Since the beginning of the year the amount of capital, including the capital stock of incorporated companies, invested in new manufacturing and mining enterprises in the South, and in the enlargement of old plants and rebuilding of mills after being destroyed by fire, aggregates over $36,000,000. This covers every variety of enterprise.

THE London Financial News has succeeded in obtaining some trustworthy figures as to the expenditures on DeLesseps' Panama canal. Up to last September the cash raised amounted to $111,375,000, with liabilities at that date amounting to $153,238,700. Since then $104,000,000 have been spent on the work, and it is estimated that $180,000,000 more will be required, to say nothing of the interest to be paid on the money. Altogether, the work is likely to cost not far from $300,000,000. Count de Lesseps' first estimate for the whole work was only $120,000,000. Can he raise the $300,000,000?

NEW EXTRADITION TREATY.

It is asserted in well informed political circles that before resigning office the GLADSTONE administration finally adjusted the terms of a new extradition treaty between Great Britain and the United States, the provisions of which extend to the British Colonies, and that the treaty now only awaits confirmation by the various legislatures of the countries affected by the treaty. A leading American journal says; Recent events have clearly shown that an amendment of the existing law is most urgently required, in the interest of both nations. The greatest swindlers of this country, after defrauding and robbing the people of millions, simply crossed the border into Canada, and then snapped their fingers at the officers of justice at their heels; while the most reckless and hardened scoundrels of another class left Ireland and found a haven here where they openly defied the British government, and plotted for the overthrow of that empire, by the wanton destruction of innocent lives, and of valuable public as well as private property. Such a state of matters had become quite a scandal to both nations, but it was not until Eso and other defaulters found a home in Canada to live upon their ill-gotten gains that the government of this country bestirred itself to obtain the much needed amendment of the extradition treaty. So long as only Britain suffered the American government would not risk offending the Irish voters here by seeking any alteration. The British government was only too glad when the American government showed a desire to have the Treaty revised, and entertained the proposal in the most cordial and liberal spirit. As we have said, the result is a new Treaty, with appended to it a schedule of offences so copious and minute that it will meet even the recent new developments of crime by both British and American offenders. Of course Irish influence will be exerted to prevent the Treaty being confirmed by Congress at Washington, but it will not be successful. The intercourse between Britain and this country is now so extensive, and their social, political and commercial interests are so identified, that the respective governments must for the common interest do all in their power to promote amity and concord.

THE DOMINION CAPITAL.

The Close of the Session—A Scene in the Chamber—The Volunteers Publicly Thanked

And are Rewarded for their Services. $20,000 Voted to Gen. Middleton.

[From our Special Correspondent.]

The Dominion Parliament, which has now been in session since the 29th of January last, has at last been brought to a close, nothing but the prorogation, which takes place on Monday, remaining to be done. A scene of unusual occurrence occurred this week. On Wednesday evening Mrs. McInnes—who lost her husband two or three years ago in an accident on the Intercolonial railway, and has ever since been subject to fits of temporary insanity,—entered the central door and began rushing up the corridors of the House screeching for her husband. She afterwards made a dart for the Commons chamber, saying she wanted to get at Sir John Macdonald, who had killed her husband. She got as far as the entrance to the chamber when she was caught and ejected from the building. The event of yesterday's sitting of Parliament was the passing of

A VOTE OF THANKS

to MAJOR-GENERAL MIDDLETON and his men for the prompt manner in which they put down the rebellion in the Northwest. The motion was moved by MR. CARON, Minister of Militia, and was seconded by SIR RICHARD CARTWRIGHT. MR. CARON reviewed the leading events in the history of the campaign, and acknowledged the valuable assistance he had received from the Hudson's Bay Company, the Canadian Pacific Railway, the telegraph company, the commissariat and ambulance organizations, and the officials of his department, down to his two private secretaries. A most flattering and very appreciatory worded acknowledgement was also made by the Minister of the thoughtfulness displayed by Her Royal Highness the PRINCESS LOUISE, as well as by the ladies of Canada in providing for the comfort of the volunteers in the hospital and in the field. SIR RICHARD CARTWRIGHT seconded the motion in an excellent speech. He referred to the fact that we had placed a force of between four thousand and five thousand comparatively untrained men in the field, two thousand miles distant, and had succeeded in crushing the rebellion, all inside of six weeks' time, and he expressed the belief that in thus showing our ability to maintain law and order we had created a favorable impression on the nations abroad, and had vastly increased our own self-respect. He believed there had been a large gain in national spirit, and that, on the whole, though we had suffered heavy losses in men and money, we were not left entirely without compensation. SIR RICHARD'S speech was loudly applauded by both sides of the House.

$20,000 FOR GEN. MIDDLETON.

The House then went into Committee of Supply, and passed a vote for $20,000 to GEN. MIDDLETON as a gratuity, in acknowledgment of his services. The Senate passed the Supply Bill this morning. In reply to MR. TRUDEL, SIR ALEXANDER CAMPBELL stated that the Government had not yet considered what steps it would take to ascertain where the responsibility for the late rebellion rested. The Government had been charged with being responsible for the insurrection, and were anxious to have the question investigated as soon as possible.

A Pretty Woman's Secret.

Fear of discovery, when she resorts to false hair and dyes, is a source of constant anxiety to her. The very persons from whom she most desires to hide the waning of her charms are the ones most likely to make the discovery. But there is no reason why she should not regain and retain all the beauty of hair that was her pride in youth. Let her use AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, and, not only will her hair cease to fall out, but a new growth will appear where the scalp has been denuded; and locks that are turning gray, or have actually grown white, will return to their pristine freshness and brilliance of color. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR cures

Hereditary Baldness.

GEORGE MAYER, Flatonia, Texas, was bald at 23 years of age, as his ancestors had been for several generations. One bottle of HAIR VIGOR started a growth of soft, downy hair all over his scalp, which soon became thick, long, and vigorous.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

is not a dye, but, by healthful stimulation of the roots and color glands, speedily restores to its original color hair that is Turning Gray.

MRS. CATHERINE DRAMER, Point of Rocks, Md., had her hair suddenly blanched by fright, during the late civil war. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR restored it to its natural color, and made it softer, glossier, and more abundant than it had been before.

Scalp Diseases

Which cause dryness, brittleness, and falling of the hair, dandruff, itching, and annoying sores, are all quickly cured by AYER'S HAIR VIGOR. It cured HERBERT BOYD, Minneapolis, Minn., of intolerable Itching of the Scalp; J. N. CARTER, Jr., Occoquan, Va., of Scald Head; MRS. D. V. S. LOVELACE, Lovelaceville, Ky., of Tetter Sores; MISS BESSIE H. BEDLOE, Burlington, Vt., of Scalp Disease and Dandruff. Torpidity of the roots of the hair, which, if neglected, may result in unfeasible baldness, is readily cured by AYER'S HAIR VIGOR.

A Toilet Luxury

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR has no equal. It is colorless, cleanly, delightfully perfumed, and has the effect of making the hair soft, pliant, and glossy.

LAND FOR VOLUNTEERS.

The resolutions to make a grant of land or scrip to each volunteer who has taken part in the Northwest campaign, were concurred in this week. These resolutions give to each man a homestead of 320 acres, free of all dues, instead of the usual 160 acres with some $10 or $20 dues, or, in effect, they give the volunteer the right to take, additional to the ordinary homestead, the contiguous pre-emption free, for which, under the land laws, $2 00 per acre has to be paid by the ordinary settler. This land is given on conditions of actual settlement by the volunteer or by a substitute who assumes all his rights and responsibilities on the premises. Should the volunteer not find it desirable to take land either for himself or a substitute, he has the option of taking transferable scrip to the amount of $80, which will apply at par on all payments to the government on account of Dominion lands. This scrip is worth, on the market, about seventy-five cents on the dollar, while the free pre-emption and freedom from dues which are the advantages conferred on the volunteer over the ordinary land settler are worth $300 or more to any intending settler, and should, therefore, be the more valuable option of the two.

THE SUPPLEMENTARY ESTIMATES

for next year were brought down this week, and amount altogether to $2,082,944.69, of which $1,139,297.65 is chargeable to capital and $943,647.65 is chargeable to the consolidated fund. Further supplementary estimates were brought down a few days later, the total chargeable to capital being $550,000, and chargeable to consolidated fund $2,605,962.38. The most important announcement was the increase in the indemnity to members of the Senate and House of Commons from $1000 to $1500. The item is as follows: To increase the sessional allowance of members of the Senate and House of Commons for the present session only, from one thousand to fifteen hundred dollars, subject, however, to the present provisions of the law affecting the absence and attendance of members, House of Commons $105,500, Senate $39,000.

ST. PAUL Pioneer Press: "The Northwest field force has returned to Winnipeg, as it might have done a month ago, without any danger from half-breeds or Indians in the Saskatchewan country. This whole Canadian war has been the training of a columbind upon a canary bird. In the light of events, it is pretty sure that the mounted police might have taken care of RIEL, had it been worth its salt. The government has an enormous bill of costs to pay, which might as well have been saved. If MIDDLETON can get any glory out of the expedition, however, by all means let him have it."

TWO.

[Helen M. Winslow.]

Two streamlets, I know, whose head-waters clear
Intermingle their murmuring song;
But one seeks the north, and the other flows south
By a roundabout course and along.
And the streams which at first blended every low strain
Flowing over unto the deep sea,
Leave constantly wider the distance between,
—As between you, love, and me.

Two hearts I once knew, who dwelt side by side,
And whose thoughts interwined with each other;
But differing aims lead by separate paths
And each finds their joy in another.
And the two which at first close together were bound
Drift apart on the world's changing sea
And the distance grows wider as the years roll by
—As between you, love, and me.

A Difficult Catch.

[Sporting Life.]

Apropos of the attempt of a number of ball players to catch a ball dropped from the top of the Washington monument, and the opinions expressed as to the ability of any one to accomplish the feat, the question arises if any of them has an idea of the velocity acquired by a ball dropped from a height of 550 feet by the time it strikes the ground.

The experiment was tried by Paul Hines, Sam Trott, Charlie Snyder, Phil Baker, and others, but none succeeded in holding it.

Now the fact is that a ball so dropped has a velocity of 187 feet per second when it strikes the ground. This velocity can be better comprehended by comparing it with a batted ball.

The longest hit which the writer has any knowledge of was made by George Wright, at Indianapolis, when the ball struck the ground a few inches over 300 yards. The ball, in this instance, was hit into the air at an angle of about 45 degrees, the most favorable angle for a long hit.

Without giving the formula, I will state that, as near as can be calculated, the angle and the distance being given, the initial velocity of the ball in this case is found to be about 100 feet per second.

Allowing the same ball to have been hit in the same direction, at the same angle with sufficient force to give it the same velocity at the starting point that it acquires in falling from the monument top, it would have gone 544 yards.

Would any of the players like to take hold of a line hit, of the same force, at short field?

The "Torpedo Guide."

[Boston Transcript.]

A machine has been patented which promises to render the torpedo still more effective. Hitherto there has always been a great element of uncertainty in the action of marine explosives, and not unfrequently they have completely falsified the calculation of those who have employed them. The torpedo has, indeed, sometimes proved more destructive to those who used it than to the enemy against whom it was directed. The new machine is called the "torpedo guide," and it is claimed that it can control, with absolute certainty, the action of the explosive at a distant of three miles.

As the torpedo is launched on its errand of destruction, a thin insulated wire is paid off, and, as the wire immediately sinks, communication cannot be destroyed by the enemy. The operator controls the movements of the torpedo by transmitting a negative or positive current of electricity, and the "guide" is so constructed that the attack can be directed to any given point with mathematical precision. Even if the ship from which the torpedo proceeded were moving in one direction, and the vessel attacked in another, the torpedo could still be employed, it is stated, with deadly certainty.

Wigs for Statues.

[Foreign Letter.]

Some antiquarians assume that some Roman statues were fitted with movable marble wigs, but for what reason is not clear, unless the fastidious matrons of antiquity desired to have the hair on their sculptured portraits always arranged in the latest fashion. The statue of Lucilla, wife of the Emperor Lucius Verus, in the museum of the capitol at Rome, has a wig of black marble that can be taken off; and in the Vatican a Venus is believed to represent Julia Soæmias, the mother of the Emperor Elagabalus, with hair that may be removed. There was also a bald bust of a woman, with marble wig attached, in the palace of Sans-Souci at Potsdam.

A New Tanning Agent.

[Arizona Graphic.]

The statement is made that a tanner at Tempe, A. T., two or three years ago discovered a plant which carried a large proportion of tannin, and which, when used in the manufacture of leather, gave extra weight to the product. The plant is of annual growth, indigenous to the deserts and dry uplands, and is known to the Mexicans and Indians as "gonagra." It has a root somewhat longer and more scraggy than the cultivated beet, though resembling it in appearance.

Generally Recognized Him.

[Yonkers Statesman.]

Out in the boundless west, when a young fellow gets married, the first thing he receives is a serenade from the local band. This generally reconciles him to any sort of treatment, and he settles down and is happy afterward.

ALASKA FUR TRADE.

LEASE OF THE SEAL ISLANDS BY THE COMMERCIAL COMPANY.

How the Price of the Sealskin Sacque Is Affected, and How the Promiscuous Slaughter of Seals Is Prevented.

[New York Times.]

"There is no question that the Alaska Commercial company, by its lease of the seal islands of that country, enjoys one of the most valuable franchises that could possibly be accured," said an extensive importer of sealskins in this city, "and it is to be regretted that the government granted the privilege it did for so insignificant a return. At the same time, no matter what may be said on that score, the monopoly thus vouchsafed has been a wise thing, inasmuch as it prevents the general warfare on the seals of these islands which has caused the virtual extinction of the fur seal from every other fishery in the world. Under the provisions of the company's lease of the Alaska islands only a limited number of seals may be killed annually—100,000 I believe—and the natural increase of the animals is many times that. For these skins the government receives but $2 each, while they sell net the company about $2,500,000.

"The Pribyloff group of islands, over which the Alaska company has supreme control, are 800 miles from Sitka, and are simply small rocky protrusions from the sea. The only life one sees there is in the seal-killing season, which begins early in June and continues all summer, the skin being in its best condition during these months. The seals taken on the desolate shores of these district islands furnish the finest quality of seal fur now to be obtained. The Antarctic islands of Georgia and Desolation formerly contained a still finer clad seal, its value being twice that of the Alaska seal, but as they were free hunting grounds the animals long since became so scare that it did not pay to send vessels to their haunts after them. The last time that a seal-hunting party was sent to those remote waters less than 100 were taken, while the time is still within the memory of seal hunters who are not yet old when a catch of 2,000,000 a year on these islands was not an uncommon thing.

"It is not a pleasant sight, the slaughtering of seals, nor is there anything in it requiring heroism or the exercise of skill, or that will awaken the lively emotions of a sportsman. The sealing vessels begin to gather at the islands early in June, and it is a fact that in the heavy fogs of that latitude in summer the sailors depend on the hoarse cries of the seals that are gathered on the rocky shores to guide them to the hunting grounds. From the time the seals begin to congregate at the breeding places until August there is constant and often deadly warfare waged against the pugnacious heads of sleek-skinned harems, and the bellowings of these jealous seals may be heard far out to sea above the roar of the surf. Not less than 5,000,000 seals congregate on these isolated rocks, and the chorus of voices it is possible for them to raise may be imagined. To see the seals literally packed on the islands is a sight never to be forgotten. The whole surface of the rocks seems to be a wriggling, writhing, contorting mass.

"A 3-year-old seal has the choicest fur. Nothing younger than a 2-year-old nor older than a 4-year-old is killed. The hunters start out before dawn, while the seals are asleep along the shores. Taking positions between them and the sea they cut off their escape. Then the surprised animals are driven inland, as drovers might drive flocks of sheep. They are permitted to take their own time, and when they reach the killing round the hunters go around and knock each one, or the ones that are marketable, on the head with a heavy club. The skins are removed from the carcases at once and taken to the salting houses, where they are covered with salt and piled up. They remain in cure for three or four weeks, when they are counted by the government agent and taken to San Francisco, where the United States collector recounts them and collects the tax. At San Francisco they are packed in tight bands and sent direct to London for the dressing which no one in this country has yet learned to give them."

Plug Tobacco in Washington.

[Washington Letter.]

There is much more plug tobacco seen in Washington now than ever before. "We sell much more plug tobacco than any other kind," said the manager of a prominent tobacco establishment of the city. "There is a very large number of southern people here, you know, and they all use plug tobacco. You couldn't get a southerner to use 'soft tobacco,' unless it was the case of some old fellow whose teeth were so bad he had to give up the plug. All the southerners use plug. The eastern men, and those from the north and west generally use fine-cut, but you can't sell it to a genuine southern most money for tobacco generally spend the other. They buy the best they can get, and when they smoke, run high up in price. These New York fellows who come here usually buy 25 cent cigars, while your average congressman and senator from the south buys 5 and 10 cent cigars."

Apprehension.

[Philadelphia Call.]

Jinks (amateur fisherman)—Yes, aw, our fishing club will start the season next week. Going a long distance. You see, good trout streams are very scarce now.

Minks—Your club starts out next week, eh? Well, of course, that will cause a good deal of apprehension.

"Apprehension? Ha, ha, very good—among the fish you mean?"

"No: among the worms."

Charlemagne's Rosebush.

[Chicago Herald.]

A beautiful rosebush, said to have been planted by Charlemagne, is one of the great curiosities of the ancient city of Hildesheim, in Hanover. It is gnarled and rugged, as becomes its extreme age, and in some places the principal stem is as thick as a man's body.

Progress in Stove Manufacture.

[Exchange.]

In the year 1777 considerable interest was manifested in an announcement that six stoves had been completed in Philadelphia. The annual product of the stove foundries in that city is now valued at $4,000,000, and the industry supports about 1,200 people.

A thorough trial will give positive proof of this.

Hardened Liver.

Five years ago I broke down with kidney and liver complaint and rheumatism. Since then I have been unable to be about at all. My liver became hard like wood; my limbs were puffed up and filled with water.

All the best physicians agreed that nothing could cure me. I resolved to try Hop Bitters: I have used seven bottles; the hardness has all gone from my liver, the swelling from my limbs, and it has worked a miracle in my case; otherwise I would have been now in my grave.

J. W. MOREY,
Buffalo, Oct. 1, 1881.

Poverty and Suffering.

I was dragged down with debt, poverty and suffering for years, caused by a sick family and large bills for doctoring.

I was completely discouraged, until one year ago, by the advice of my pastor, I commenced using Hop Bitters, and in one month we were all well, and none of us have seen a sick day since, and I want to say to all poor men, you can keep your families well a year with Hop bitters for less than one doctor's visit will cost. I know it. —A WORKINGMAN.

A BY-LAW

Respecting the Expenditure of the Municipal Revenue for the Year 1885.

Be it enacted by the Municipal Corporation of the City of Victoria as follows:

1. It shall be lawful for the Finance Committee of the said Council to arrange for and obtain a credit by way of overdraft upon current account with the Bank of British North America to an amount not exceeding in the whole the sum of $30,000, including the now existing overdraft.

2. All moneys so overdrawn shall be used for the ordinary current expenditure of the said Corporation, and shall be repaid to the said Bank on or before the 31st day of December, 1885, out of the Municipal Revenue of the said Corporation for the current year.

3. This By-Law may be cited as the "Bank Credit By-Law, 1885."

Passed the Municipal Council the 17th day of June, A. D. 1885.

Reconsidered and finally passed the Council the 24th day of June, A. D. 1885.

—The Poodle Dog Rotisserie will be open for the accommodation of guests to-morrow.

—The balance to the credit of depositors in the Dominion Savings Banks on the 30th of May last was $15,026,533.63.

—The Dominion government has accepted $100,000 of C. P. R. bonds from the Scottish Provident Institution as a deposit security for $90,000.

—The Poodle Dog Rotisserie will be open for the inspection of the public this evening and will be prepared to do business to-morrow morning.

—The sum of $33,243.50 is credited to the Victoria Deputy Receiver-General's office as being circulated for the six months ending 31st of last December.

—The London and Lancashire Life Assurance Company has deposited as security with the government of Canada $10,000 of Victoria bonds at par.

—Ten thousand men are at work on the Canadian Pacific in the Rockies and Selkirks. The contractors will bring in 250 men a week until the line is covered.

—A correspondent writes that there are no less than four law suits now pending at New Westminster and Victoria from the Chilliwhack settlement.

—Arthur Graff, a workman on the Point Ellice bridge was conveyed to the Royal Hospital yesterday afternoon, his foot having been severely smashed by a pile driver. Dr. Taylor is in attendance.

—C. D. Rand has resumed business and has taken an office on Bastion street over Dr. Chipp's where he will carry on business as a real estate broker and insurance agent.

—Mr. John Finkle, of Woodstock, Ont., accompanied by Mr. G. T. Blackstock, barrister, Toronto, and Mr. C. V. Howard, of the C. P. R. solicitor's office, Winnipeg, are making their way to this coast overland, via the C. P. R.

—A gentleman horse thief bearing the euphonious name of "Big Kid," was tried by Chief Justice Begbie on his recent visit to the eastern portion of the province. He went up for four and a half years.

—In the list given by THE TIMES yesterday of the passengers by the Ancon from Alaska, Rev. Father Althop ought to have read "Althof," and in the Cassiar news Dehoire ought to have read "De Loire."

—The George E. Starr brought freight for Van Volkenburgh & Co, J B Ferguson, T Dunn, A Ofner, Moore & Co, Fell & Co, Driard House, S J Pitts, J Wilson, Nenfelder & Ross, H Saunders, Leiser, W H Bennett, H Bornstein, W R Megaw, Brewster & Co, Mrs Trieber.

—Rain fell on Wednesday, the 8th inst., at Donald, B. C., for the first time this summer. It had the effect of putting out the bush fires in the mountains, which have lately been very destructive, nine cars having been burnt alongside the track at the first crossing.

—The retail branch of the Victoria boot and shoe factory will be discontinued on the 1st of August, in consequence of the manufacturing department requiring all the proprietors' attention. The production of fine wear, by white labor is about being commenced.

—Harvesting is progressing very favorably in Chilliwhack, Sumas, Matsqui Langley, Maple Ridge and throughout the lower Fraser valley. The hay crop, now secured, is on the whole up to former years. The indications are that the other crops will likewise be equally favorable to the former.

—A rumor is current on the streets this evening, which is generally believed to be authentic, that one of the wealthiest firms in Chinatown, largely engaged in railroad work, has been forced into insolvency. Writs for large amounts were issued against the firm last evening.

—The wires are at their old tricks again, and we are having a repetition of the uncertainty of everything telegraphic that was so terribly aggravating to the news monger last winter. In short the wires are smashed and THE TIMES is minus its usual afternoon specials.

—The southern division of the anti-Chinese union met last night at the Cosmopolitan hotel, Mr. J. Berryman presiding. The constitution of the division, with by-laws, were adopted. A public meeting was decided on for Monday evening, and a committee was appointed to arrange therefor.

MARINE NOTES.

The bark Gerard C. Tobey, from Newport for Port Moody, was spoken March 20, in lat, 3 S., lon. 29 W.

The bark Viola left London April 28, for this port.

The bark Huntress left Rio Janiero for Victoria on June 25.

The G. W. Elder sailed from San Francisco this forenoon for Victoria.

Are You Certain?

The Queen of the Pacific carries one hundred tons of coal from the mine of the Oregon Improvement Company, the first shipment ever made. A Sound exchange adds the assertion that it is equal to the best British Columbia coal. Doubtful.

MEMORIAL SERVICE.

The Meeting in Christ Church Cathedral Last Evening.

The memorial services in honor of the late U. S. Grant, held in Christ Church Cathedral yesterday, were largely attended. Among the prominent Americans present were Solicitor-General Goode, U. S. Consul Stevens, Marshal Dubois, of Idaho, P. O. Inspectors Doolittle, Murphy and Brown, and many others. The Lieut.-Governor, Hon. Mr. Smithe and colleagues, members of the judiciary and other prominent citizens were also in attendance. The sacred edifice was appropriately decorated in black and white, and a portrait of the dead soldier was suspended over the chancel. Lord Bishop Hills entered at 3 o'clock, followed by Bishop Paddock, Archdeacon Scriven and Revs. Beanlands and Malachi, during which the funeral march was played on the organ. Miss Carrie Stephens sang in solo "I know that my Redeemer Liveth," in clear, rich, resonant voice. The 90th Psalm was chanted by the audience, and the Lord Bishop read from the 15th chap. of Corinthians, and was followed by the choir singing the 257th hymn. Bishop Paddock then preached the funeral oration, which was an eloquent and touching tribute to the dead hero. The music of the choir was excellent, and the harmony perfect. The choir sang, as the audience retired, "The Last Greeting," and the memorial service was thus brought to a close.

"GRANT."

Thy name shall live, brave Grant, though thou art gone,
Beyond that veil called death, to immortality;
While we, a nation o'er thy mortal shell, doth mourn
The absence of all life's vitality.

On thy remains we gaze, and gazing think,
What deeds found action in that manly frame;
Deeds, that forever made vile slav'ry sink,
And freed our nation from its loathsome stain.

Columbians, mourn for your departed friend!
That noble friend, whose heart was ever true;
Add let his name in mem'ry ever stand
A patriotic monument to you,

Example take, ye youth, his footsteps trace,
In honor live, as he in honor lived:
And be his life a guide to that blest place,
Where in immortal glory he's arrayed.

THE EXTRADITION CASE.

Argument in Favor of Extraditing Isaac N. Hibbs.

WEDNESDAY, July 29, 1885.

Court assembled at 11:30 o'clock.

Mr. Hett stated that it was largely owing to the efforts of Honorable Mr. Goode, Solicitor-General of the United States, that the evidence in the present case had been so carefully prepared. (A synopsis of the treaty law of forgery and its application to the present case, carefully prepared by that gentleman was read and handed to the judge.) Mr. Hett then cited several authorities and cases bearing on the subject of extradition and forgery.

Mr. Walls reviewed the evidence taken during the trial, claiming that a clear case of forgery had been made out.

Mr. Davie for the prisoner, claimed that a large number of the depositions placed in evidence, had been taken before notaries public, and a notary public was not a legally qualified officer under the act. Those documents could not properly be admitted as evidence and without these no case had been proved. He also argued that even if Hibbs did defraud the government he had not made any false statement in writing, and was not guilty of forgery. There was a good feeling between the two countries, but on the question of extradition the reason that matters were not more definite or explicit, was owing to the reticence of the United States government.

Court adjourned at 1.30 to meet at 3 o'clock.

A PROVIDENT PEOPLE.

British Columbia Deposits Eclipse those of any other Province, Population Considered.

It has repeatedly been asserted that the contributions of the people of this province to the Dominion Savings banks is very large. In a recent issue of the Canada Gazette the government publishes returns showing the sums deposited at each office in the Dominion. Halifax ranks first, with $2,994,220.91; St. John, N. B., next, with $2,506,950.25; then Victoria, with $1,615,771.73; followed by Charlottetown, P. E. Island, with $1,518,924.16.

The balance on the 30th of April last, at Victoria, was $1,600,083.29; deposits for May, $75,402.76; a total of $1,675,436.05. The withdrawals being $59,664.32; leaving a net balance on the 31st May of $1,615,771.73. At Nanaimo the balance was $226,919.51; deposits for May, $8,671.00; a total of $235,590.51; withdrawals for May, $12,166.72; leaving a net balance of $223,423.79 on the 31st of May. At New Westminster the balance on the 30th April was $298,463.49; deposits for May, $12,008.00; leaving a balance of $310,471.49; withdrawn during May, $20,148.99. Leaving a net balance of $290,322.50. The total balance to the credit of depositors in this province on the 31st of May being $2,129,518.02.

The Private Secretary.

This splendid play was produced last night to another most appreciative audience with great success. The respective members of the troupe acquitted themselves with their usual ability, the spontaneous outbursts of laughter testifying [illegible] although the equally amusing comedy of "The Professor,"—the production of one of the members of the company, Mr. W. H. Gillette—will be presented, with the following cast of characters: Arthur Hinsdale, A. M. Ph. D., Spofford, Professor of Astronomy in the Boston University (his original creation), Mr. Wm. H. Gillette; Mrs. Elliott, the Professor's aunt, who desires to see him married and settled (for this occasion), Miss Fanny Addison; Daisy Brown, a child of the woods (her original part), Miss Belle Jackson; Henry Marston, with but one object in life, Mr. T. A. Wise; Estelle, an abnormal young lady, Miss Alice G. Sherwood; Grace Gay, a fine opportunity, Miss Maud Haslam; Mr. Thomkins, anxious to secure Grace for his son (for this occasion) Mr. M. A. Kennedy; Gustavus, who doesn't care about it, Mr. Hal. Warren; Moses Brown, not a pleasant person, Mr. H. A. Moray; Mr. Beauregard, an artist, Mr. Frank Tannehill, Jr.; Annie Timms, who says he may ask mama, Miss Maud Giroux; Susy Sundown, who has a "paw," Miss Eula Talbot; Fred Bangs and Jack Topley, Juniors from Yale, Mr. Geo. R. Boaler and Mr. Ed. Barron; Calvin, who is honest, Mr. J. B. Scott; Sheriff, a useful man, Mr. Williams.

Coal Harbor.

Messrs. G. Robertson & Co. and Mr. C. D. Rand have issued an exceedingly neat and attractive business card. On the front is the business of the respective firms named, while on the back are views of Coal Harbor, looking south up the Inlet, showing Granville and Hastings on one side and Moodyville on the other. They are true representations of the proposed terminus of the Canadian Pacific railway.

YESTERDAY'S COLLISION.

The Enterprise Beached To-Day—The Divers to Inspect Her.

Incidents of the Wreck—Hair-breadth Escapes—Drowning Cattle.

To-day the Enterprise is lying beached about fifty yards from the shore at Cadboro Bay. The slope was successful yesterday in towing her to shallow water. She presents a very dilapidated appearance. Her port side is stove in while the shore is strewn with wreckage. It is yet uncertain what will be done with her in future.

The remains of a dead Chinaman is to be seen in the cook house, but it is not known whether others are lost or not.

MR. CHAS. TODD, P. C.

was in his stateroom on the Enterprise when the collision happened. Did not think at first it was a serious affair; thought they had grounded on a rock, and that the steamer would have to remain until relieved by another boat. Some one called that the boat was sinking; he then came out of his stateroom in the ladies' cabin. He had no sooner left the stateroom than the woodwork forming the partition in the front of the cabin gave way from the pressure of water, immediately flooded the cabin with water, freight of all kinds, ropes, blankets, freight boxes, etc. By a superhuman effort he got clear, and then throwing a satchel on to the Rithet he set to work to render assistance to others. Mr. Todd left many little articles in the stateroom which were lost. He says the officers of the steamers, and many others, behaved heroically. A few stopping with the determination of rescuing any that might get in the sea. One young lady, of this city, by some means got into the water, she was rescued in a short time. There were a number of men swimming in the water rendering assistance to such as required aid. Cattle were likewise swimming about amongst the boxes, struggling to get on to the sinking boat. Such of the people as were injured were taken care of by the officers of the Rithet, restoratives being liberally supplied by them. The Chinese were panic-stricken as usual, and endeavored in some instances to take the life-preservers from the ladies. A few Indian women were likewise badly frightened, as compared with the white ladies on board. An American lady on her way to her home on the Sound was slightly bruised, and had to be removed from the steamer in a carriage on reaching this city. Mr. Todd considers it a mercy that the accident happened where it did, instead of being in rough water. Had the vessel gone down wholly there must have been several lives lost.

THE MAILS

on the ill-fated vessel from Port Hammond, Ladner's Landing and Lulu Island were brought to the city last night by the purser of the Enterprise, and the New Westminster bags were received to-day. Although the letters and papers were saturated with water, no serious loss will be sustained, as they are all decipherable. Documents of a permanent character which it may be necessary to have replaced, can be readily re-copied, and thus no real loss will be sustained in that direction.

THE EXPRESS

parcels were also received by the B. C. Express company last night. The quantity was somewhat smaller than usual, but beyond having the immersion there will be no loss. A sum of about $2000 was on board for the B. C. Express.

THE TWO FRENCHMEN

who were so seriously injured are at the French hospital. One of them is somewhat seriously injured; his collar bone is fractured. He is badly cut about the mouth and chin while there are numerous contused wounds about his neck and face. Dr. Milne who is attending the injured man thinks that if no untoward symptoms set in that he will recover shortly; to-day he was progressing as favorably as could be expected. The other man had one of his ankles sprained and a leg very much bruised. His symptoms to-day are favorable. Dr. Milne is in attendance on both.

MR. JOHN LEECH,

mate of the Enterprise, received the most serious injuries. A report was circulated on the street this morning that he had died, but we are glad to be able to state that it had no foundation, and his symptoms are favorable for an early and complete recovery. His right arm was broken near the shoulder, the bones being terribly shattered, and he was also suffering from a severe pain in the right side, possibly from a fracture in one or more of his ribs. Dr. MacSwain is hopeful that his injuries are not of a serious character.

THE BAGGAGE

of the passengers and a large quantity of effects and furnishings of the Enterprise, were brought to the city to-day by the Yosemite. Apart from the destruction of the steamer and cattle, we have not been able to verify any loss of a serious character to any of the passengers. In this respect, the unfortunate accident is nothing to what it might have been under less favorable circumstances.

A SUBMARINE DIVER,

Mr. Thos. Harman will go to work at the wreck to-morrow. His apparatus was taken to the scene of the accident to-day.

THE LOSS OF LIFE

will not be so great as feared. Last night it was reported that two white [illegible] Brown, but this has since been ascertained to be an exaggeration. It is now, however, known that two Chinamen who were expected to arrive in the city by the Enterprise have failed to put in an appearance, and it is feared that they have been lost. A rumor, which however requires confirmation, was in circulation this afternoon that the body of one Chinaman had been found on the wreck to-day.

Tai Chang Yuen.

In police court to-day, in re-arranging bail for some Chinese defendant, Mr. Gannaway, on behalf of the prosecution, stated that last night heavy writs had been issued against a well-known Chinese merchant Tai Chang Yuen, and that it might be advisable to secure another name as bondsman. The court thought Tai Chang Yuen was still good for the amount, about $250.

Dinner at Government House.

His Honor, Lieut.-Governor Cornwell, gave a dinner party last night at Carey Castle, at which were present: Solicitor-General Goode, Hon. W. Smithe, premier and lady, Consul Stevens and wife, the Misses Cornwall, Hon. Justice Gray and wife.

SCANDAL IN HIGH LIFE.

A Member of the Late Government Implicated in the Affair.

LONDON, July 27.—A Radical member of the House of Commons and of the late Cabinet is seriously annoyed by a prevalent scandal. According to the current story this statesman, who is a widower, took to his private residence a few weeks ago the wife of another well known London gentleman. They entered a room, when to the horror of the lady she discovered another woman in the apartment. This compromised the lady so much that she bitterly upbraided the statesman and there was a terrible scene. She finally left the house in desperate anger and confessed the whole circumstance to her husband. The scandal becoming public the aggrieved husband begged the aid of a noble Earl and a most popular Commoner, both members of the late cabinet, to suppress the reports. Both of the ex-Ministers consented to try, and they have employed the past fortnight in efforts to make a settlement. The friends of the accused are willing to pay any sum to prevent an exposure. Both Houses of Parliament are fully possessed of the facts, and the scandal is the sole topic of conversation in all the West End clubs. The Tories are gleeful, and the present ministers have high hopes of ruining by exposure the famous citizen and diplomat who is implicated. The Tories are straining every nerve to secure an exposure, so as to destroy the chance of the Radicals for success at the general election. They are urging the husband not to recede and are promising him legal aid and social protection. It is alleged that the accused gentleman refrained from addressing a great political meeting last night which he had intended to address.

SIR CHARLES DILKE.

Much surprise has been caused by the sudden abandonment of the Radical meeting which had been arranged by Sir Charles Dilke, and at which he was to have been the principal speaker. At the last moment Sir Charles excused himself, saying that he was utterly prostrated in consequence of the mental strain of the past few weeks.

POLICE COURT.

[Before E. Johnson, S. M.]

Johnny, a Fort Rupert Indian, pleaded guilty to having been drunk, and was awarded the usual penalty of $5.

William, a Nitinat, in possession of a bottle of brandy "without the sanction of a medical gentleman or a minister of religion;" fined $25 or two months.

A NASTY CASE.

Frank Ellis, assaulting and threatening M. R. Robins. Complainant deposed that defendant had assaulted him at his door on Broad street, by striking him twice with his fist and kicking him once. Ellis was his son-in-law, and the quarrel, Robins said, had originated in his demand for money which he thought was to come to his wife. Ellis went into the box and swore that he did not strike Robins, but that the latter had insulted him first. He charged Robins with being guilty of incest, and that this unnatural crime was the cause of the whole trouble. The court refused to hear such statements, and there being no evidence for the defence, Ellis was bound over to keep the peace for six months in the sum of $250, on his own recognizance.

COUNTY COURT.

The Gallick case again came up to-day in County Court, before Mr. Justice Crease. Three judgments were given against Mrs. Gallick. Mr. Mills, counsel for her, then applied for her discharge from custody. After some discussion the case was adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow.

Protection of Game.

The Superintendent of Provincial Police takes exception to a statement in last evening's TIMES in reference to the appointment of a special constable to watch the pot-hunters who are destroying the game out of season. In referring the question to the Attorney-General he was acting strictly in accordance with his duties, and on his advice the special was appointed. Three or four men have been detailed to this particular work for some time, but the difficulties and expense encountered in enforcing the law are found to be very great. A sporting club, whose members would consider it a personal duty to expose every infraction of the law that came to their knowledge, and with a membership scattered throughout the country districts, would soon be successful in suppressing the illegal slaughter of game.

The Steamboat Arrangement.

The Geo. E. Starr arrived about 10:30 a.m. to-day. According to the P.-I., the company will relinquish the routes heretofore held by the Idaho—to Whatcom and New Westminster. The Emma Hayward will be tied up, and the Idaho will be substituted for her on the upper Sound. This run will be reduced from six trips a week to three, the boat going up one day and returning the next. The Olympian and Starr will make alternate trips, the Olympian leaving Seattle for Victoria on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, and the Starr on Wednesday, Friday and Sunday.

The Chinese Restriction Act.

Royal assent was given this act on the 20th instant by the Governor-General. The act will become law on the 20th of August, in so far as it relates to Mongolian immigration coming into Canada from any port in North America. Many are under the impression that the act becomes given is the correct one.

A Quick Passage.

Mr. James Haughton, wife and six children, arrived to-day by the Olyimpian. They made the journey from Dublin to Victoria in twenty one days, coming via the Allan line and Northern Pacific railway. Mr. Haughton is an uncle to Messrs. Wm. and James Baird at the Occidental Hotel. He proposes making his home in Victoria.

Honorable Senator Almon, according to the Toronto Mail, was not pleased with the Chinese Restriction Act. In the senate he rose to express regret at his absence from the House yesterday when the bill to restrict Chinese immigration was to him unexpectedly read a third time. He denounced the measure as quite unworthy of nineteenth century civilization, and would, if present, have moved the three months' hoist. Sir Alexander Campbell did not think the hon. gentleman need not take his absence too much to heart, as his motion would not in all probability have altered the result.

A lady writes: "I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla in my family for many years, and could not keep house without it. For the relief of the pains consequent upon female weakness and irregularities, I consider it without an equal."

Not a particle of calomel or any other deleterious substance enters into the composition of Ayer's Cathartic Pills. On the contrary, they prove of special service to those who have used calomel and other mineral poisons as medicines, and feel their injurious effects. In such cases Ayer's Pills are invaluable.
